Education Partnerships

Program

Students, teachers, parents business and community members all benefit from collaborating on education partnerships. Northville Public School's Education Partnerships Program brings together schools, businesses and community organizations to expand and enrich learning opportunities for students.

Partnerships facilitate a climate of involvement and interaction between businesses and community organizations with their education partners.

The Education Partnerships office serves the school district and the community as a resource for programs.

In Northville schools, education partnerships are available to all students and teachers. Over 200 businesses and community organizations are involved in programs impacting students at every level.

Activities

Each partnership is unique! Programs and activities are designed to help educators develop relationships that support mutual goals and offer long-term benefits for students.

Partnership programs can encompass a wide variety of activities. The district's partnership activities include:

- staff development
- instructional development
- mentoring and tutoring
- volunteering
- community job training sites
- classroom speakers
- mock interviews
- career seminars
- after school programs, activities and events
- curriculum projects
- student and staff recognition
- business internships
- classroom work site visits
- material and equipment donations
- service-learning projects
- community service opportunities
- and more—we welcome new ideas!

Partner Profile

For the past 8 years, Silver Springs third grade students have visited Northville Downtown Merchants Association members as part of their "Meet the Owners" partnership project. Students studying economic concepts interview business owners and design advertisements that are displayed at the businesses and are published in The Northville Record. Pictured below are students at Northville Candle & Gifts.
