

Voting Information

November 8 Non-Homestead Millage Renewal and Board of Education Election

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Absentee ballot applications for those unable to get to the polls on November 8 are currently available through your city or township clerk's office. Voters who have requested absentee ballots in previous elections should already have received their applications. If you have not received your absentee ballot application, contact your city or township clerk's office. Absentee ballots are generally mailed to your address within 24-48 hours after the application is received by your clerk's office.

Once you have voted, place your completed ballot in the envelope provided by your clerk's office. Absentee ballots can be hand-delivered to your clerk's office or mailed (First Class postage is required). Your completed ballot must be delivered by U.S. Mail to your clerk's office by election day, Tuesday, November 8, or hand-delivered by 8 p.m. on November 8.
